

UPass

If you ski or snowboard, be sure to get your UPass - a discounted Mt. Wachusett season ski pass for college students. The UPass is only $189 with valid undergrad ID. With a pass this cheap you can't afford NOT to ski or ride this winter!

Internship hunting

Looking for an internship for spring semester? Internships provide unique opportunities to experience career fields and industries before officially entering the workforce. Use our FREE Consortium-wide database to explore the opportunities in our area; consult with your professors and/or your Career Services office to find the right match for you.

WooFood

WooFood has arrived! Look for this logo at local restaurants to help you eat healthfully when dining out. See their website for more information: www.woofood.org

It's time to think about your spring course schedule...

Remember you can take courses (which will count toward your degree) at other Consortium schools for no charge. It's called Cross-Registration. Forms are available in your Registrar's Office. You can search the Master Course Database to see what's available. The Consortium Shuttle runs between six campuses Monday-Friday, 7am-7pm.

Save the Date! Consortium Concert: Sean Kingston

The Colleges of Worcester Consortium will present the 3rd annual Consortium Concert on Monday, April 2, 2012. Clark University, WPI, Assumption College, Becker College, WSU and the College of the Holy Cross are the sponsoring campuses, and students from those campuses will get the cheapest and best seats available. The show will be open to all Consortium students.

This is a great tradition for students of the Consortium to come together and enjoy a fun night at Hanover Theatre <http://www.thehanovertheatre.org>.

Follow the Consortium on Facebook and Twitter for ticket sale information.
