

OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS

Young Mens Group

MEN WORKING & WALKING TOGETHER

WORCESTER
STATE
UNIVERSITY

Office of Multicultural Affairs

Young Mens Group

We got this!: Men working & walking together

The Young Men's Group's purpose is to empower our university ALANA men make the financial, academic and social adjustment needed for higher education.

To join or for more information, please contact us by emailing kkaranja@worchester.edu or calling us at 508 929-8909.

All events start at 6:00 p.m. and are held in Library, Room 169

Prior Events

September 19, 2018—Workshop on attitude and identity with Mr. Sid Buxton.

This workshop will explore what it means to be man of color in 2018.

October 3, 2018—Workshop on "What is success?" This workshop will focus on developing objectives and affirmations of one's goal.

October 17, 2018—Workshop on "Are you ready?" This workshop will explore the harsh reality that men of color face and how as men of color we must arm ourselves to succeed.

October 30, 2018—Workshop on "What is your Plan?" This workshop will help young men create an academic plan for success.

November 14, 2018—Young Mens Groups Career Panel A network reception to connect our universities young men students to professional men in various fields.

Upcoming Event

December 5, 2018—Workshop on "Who are you now?" with Mr. Sid Buxton. This workshop will conclude the semester's young mens journey in wrapping up the experiences and looking for the changes within themselves.

OFFICE OF MULTICULTURAL AFFAIRS

Young Mens Group

MEN WORKING & WALKING TOGETHER

WORCESTER
STATE
UNIVERSITY