100 Males to College Senior Workshop

Saturday, December 1st and 8th
11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Worcester State University
Learning Resource Center – Room 117

These two workshops will aim to help students outline the Admission process of applying to colleges, navigating the financial aid process, and the decision making timeline and process of choosing the “Best College for You.”

100 Males to College was created in 2015 to increase college access, enrollment, retention, and success for low-income males and males of color (LIM MOC) and particularly young, low-income Latino and African American men so that their prospects for success in college and career are more attainable.

For more information on these workshops, please email us at jdelane@worcester.edu or call us at (508) 929-8380.

Participation includes t-shirt and lunch.
