The provision of General Laws, Chapter 30A having been complied with and a quorum present, a meeting of the Board of Trustees was held on Tuesday, March 10, 2020, in-room 204 of the Wellness Center. Chairman Blais called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. The Chairman reported that Trustee Colombo will participate by remote access and announced that all votes will be by recorded roll call.

Administrative Business:

APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES - January 7, 2020

Upon a motion made by Trustee Taylor and seconded by Trustee Nichols, it was unanimously

VOTED:

To approve the January 7, 2020, minutes of the full Board meeting as presented.

ROLL CALL VOTE: 8 approved. Craig Blais; Lisa Colombo (via remote access); Maryanne Hammond;
Karen Lafond; Dina Nichols; Manuel Reyes-Ponce; Marina Taylor; David Tuttle

Discussion:

STRATEGIC PLAN UPDATE

- President Maloney introduced Linda S. Campanella, Consultant, SOS Consulting Group LLC, and Sarah Strout, Assistant Vice President, Office of Assessment and Planning, who gave an update to the board as to where we are in the process and gave a midway check-in.
- Plenty of opportunities were available to the campus to participate in the planning process, and it was an inclusive one. A lot of effort has been made to engage as many stakeholders as possible through surveys, meetings, forums, etc.
- The objective of today’s meeting was to discuss the two documents that were included in the packet.
  A draft “envisioned future state” document articulates, in one place, how WSU stakeholders (faculty, staff, students, alumni, trustees), based on the extensive outreach done in the fall, hope the University will be better, different, or stronger in five years. Second, a diagram that identifies eight vision-supporting goals reflecting areas of greatest concern to the WSU community, based on what was learned during the extensive and inclusive diagnostics phase of the planning process.

- Working groups have been convened around eight emergent themes or goals, four of them mission-central and four of them mission-supporting.
- The timeline is to have the draft plan fully developed and, just as importantly, more widely vetted on campus with our key stakeholders, in April.
- Given our commitment to inclusiveness as part of our process and our desire to have strong buy-in for the plan by the time it is approved, this vetting is an important step.
- I would like to have the opportunity to update the board of trustees on the emerging plan in early June and have the board endorse the draft plan before presenting it to the BHE’s SPC (Strategic Planning Committee) for review and feedback at the June Touchpoint II meeting.
- Once we receive SPC feedback on the draft, we will, as planned, work over the summer to refine the draft and prepare it for presentation to the board for approval in September, with our Touchpoint III meeting to follow after that.
- Trustee Blais mentioned the trustees’ disconnect regarding the climate of the faculty and, even more so, the students.
  - We are committed to diversity and inclusion through all of the goals, and each working group will be expected to engage directly in dialogue about how our strategies and desired outcomes will advance equity on our campus and support the BHE’s Equity Agenda.

ACADEMIC & STUDENT DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE REPORT
- Trustee Lafond, chair for the committee, told the board that the committee met earlier today to discuss the proposals of three Bachelor’s Degree Letter of Intent submissions proposed for this spring’s BHE degree approval process: Bachelor of Arts in Theatre, Bachelor of Arts in Art, and Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.
- These proposals represent the work of two different academic departments in the School of Humanities and Social Sciences at Worcester State University.
- Trustee LaFond discussed the process of getting a newly approved program approved by the Board of Higher Education and explained that it requires that the University’s Board of Trustees vote accompany any submission of a Letter of Intent to be presented to the BHE.
- The materials that were provided in the packet represent a thorough review of the academic governance process at WSU.
- First, each department developed its proposal and moved the proposal forward upon receipt of the department’s approval. Secondly, the All-University Committee (AUC) sends curricular proposals to the University-wide Curriculum Committee (CC.) Upon a vote from the Curriculum Committee, the AUC also reviews and votes, sending the results to the President for his review, and, if approved, signature.
- Members of the departments of Visual and Performing Arts and History and Political Science were in attendance at the subcommittee meeting, accompanied by their dean, Russ Pottle, and were available to respond to any questions we had.
- Trustee LaFond commended the members for their hard work in preparing the proposals.
- The proposed programs share focus with the current strategic plan of the University and will provide cost-effective alternatives to degree programs at area private and public universities.
Faculty are currently in place and are already teaching classes that make up the proposed new programs.

Some of the courses could be offered online.

Upon a motion made by Trustee Hammond and seconded by Trustee Reyes-Ponce, it was unanimously

Questions?
President’s Message

It has been a month like no other in the history of my tenure at Worcester State, in my lifetime, and, quite possibly, in the history of our country. Today - two weeks out from our April board meeting - there is significant uncertainty regarding the future, as the COVID-19 public health pandemic escalates. What I am certain about, though, is that our community is capable of responding with alacrity and always will put the best interests of our students first.

We could not have foreseen the drastic actions we have taken this past month. By early March, we had canceled all university-sponsored Spring Break trips; by Tuesday, March 17, most of our staff had shifted from in-office to at-home work; by Wednesday, March 25, all but a few residence hall rooms had been vacated for the semester; and on Monday, March 30, we will have launched distance learning course delivery, allowing our students to continue their studies with very little time lost. I sent a video message to our community, detailing these moves. (You may access it here.)

This President’s Update was compiled as a special COVID-19 edition, for obvious reasons. In these pages, you will read about the Response Team we’ve activated and crisis-related changes underway in each division.

As I say at the end of the video message, I’ve found that a typical Worcester State colleague’s first response to the crisis has been, “How will this affect our students?” rather than “How will this affect me?” It gives me hope that, together, we can and will work through the challenges ahead.
COVID-19 Response Team

Shortly before Governor Charlie Baker declared a state of emergency on March 10, President Maloney convened a COVID-19 Response Team (CRT) consisting of 26 employees representing every division. The CRT is co-chaired by President’s Office Chief of Staff, Carl Herrin and Dean of Students, Julie Kazarian.

The full team meets twice each week and an executive sub-group meets daily. The CRT’s charge is to assess and prepare for various contingencies as the outbreak continues to evolve. The campus community receives updates at approximately 11 a.m. via a “WSU Daily COVID 19 Briefing” email. Those communiques are archived on a COVID-19 website that includes additional critical information.

The CRT has enabled the university to respond rapidly to executive orders and advisories from both state and federal officials, as its members are empowered to make decisions and take actions. President Maloney participates as his time allows.

Through timely and often after-hours virtual gatherings, the CRT has navigated issues ranging from organizing in a matter of days a week’s worth of distance learning training for faculty, to determining a process for mail pickup and distribution in a telework environment.

Academic Affairs

Moving to Remote Learning Platforms
In the matter of about two weeks, Worcester State faculty have been trained and are prepared to offer all their coursework via remote learning platforms, beginning Monday, March 30. It is an unprecedented undertaking, one that was marked by exceptional unity and collaboration among individual faculty members, the Center for Teaching and Learning, Information Technology staff, and Academic Affairs administrators.

Academic Support
Two major surveys, one for faculty and one for students, have received prompt and thorough responses to help the university gauge needs for technology and training support. Information Technology staff have deployed approximately 150 laptops to faculty and staff in preparation for remote work.

Faculty participated in teaching and learning sessions sponsored by the Center for Teaching and Learning and the Instructional Design team of the Information Technology Department. Faculty with experience in multiple methods of course delivery have volunteered to mentor other faculty and have provided low-, medium-, and high-tech solutions for course delivery. All faculty are cognizant of stress levels associated with the COVID-19 situation and are working together to support students. Faculty have participated in open sessions and are using a listserv to share questions, answers, and helpful hints. Video-recorded sessions are posted on the COVID-19 website.
Governance
Academic governance processes will continue remotely with the cooperation of the faculty’s collective bargaining unit, the MSCA. Three proposals in response to the COVID-19 situation regarding withdrawal deadlines, preregistration, and advising for the coming fall semester, and pass/fail options for students for Spring 2020, have been submitted for expedited review.

Tenure, promotion, and post-tenure review processes have not been impacted beyond electronic signatures being allowed on forms.

Academic Programming and Events
The Celebration of Scholarship and Creativity and the Academic Achievement Awards events will move online to recognize the students’ achievements and connection to donors.

Originally scheduled for late March, Worcester State has delayed the start of its Accelerated Online Programs in Education to mid-May. The university’s online program management provider, Academic Partnerships, has offered some resources for remote pedagogy and support for some Zoom licenses.

Administration and Finance

Student Accounts
Student refunds for out-of-pocket costs in connection with Spring Break study abroad trips are being processed. Prorated refunds are being credited to resident student accounts for spring semester housing and board plan charges. Student refunds, when applicable, will be processed electronically.

Operations have moved to remote processing, with mail forwarded for processing and deposits handled by staff at a local branch of Santander Bank. Student calls are routed to employees at remote locations.

Procurement/Accounts Payable
Procurement is working to recover refunds and/or credits for travel bookings managed through the university. Staff also continue to assist employees who committed personal resources for authorized travel that has been cancelled.

Purchase orders and payments have been converted to electronic processes through the university’s enterprise management system. Processes have been documented and reviewed to ensure adequate internal controls.
Budget and Finance
All financial transactions occurring as a result of COVID-19 are being recorded in a stand-alone series of accounts in the general ledger. The transactions include refunds, credits to previously billed student accounts, reimbursements, and emergency expenditures.

The State Auditors’ engagement to examine Massachusetts transfer activities has been suspended. An evaluation as to the resumption of this engagement will be made after April 7.

Employees and Remote Work
All benefited employees remain on the payroll. Approximately 94% of benefited employees are working remotely. Many 03 contract employees also are working remotely, including a small number of student employees. 03 contractors whose hours were reduced or eliminated due to the COVID-19 were provided an unemployment brochure to guide them through the process to file for benefits.

Human Resources worked with division leaders to develop staffing plans for remote work, which included coordinating with Information Technology to deploy laptops and forward office phones to outside locations. Employees are utilizing tools such as Zoom, Google Hangouts, conference calls, emails, and Google Chat to communicate from their remote environments. All essential business functions are being performed. Human Resources has provided employees with a guide to remote working, which includes tips and helpful quick links.

Human Resources continues to update employees and maintain contact with department supervisors and union leadership to monitor these alternative work environments. The Employee Assistance Programs are available to provide additional, confidential support to employees and their families.

Buildings and Grounds
Some employees, including those from Information Technology, Facilities, and University Police (24/7), must continue to work on campus and are required to adhere to social distancing protocols. Other employees have been approved to come to campus to check the mail, print checks, and perform other essential functions. Faculty maintain access to their offices via their OneCard. Any employee who visits campus must inform University Police.

Facilities staff completed a deep clean and disinfecting of all buildings on campus. Staff continue to clean and disinfect frequently surfaces that are used on a daily basis. The Mail Center and Central Receiving continue to collect, process, and distribute mail and packages on a daily basis. The Stockroom continues to fulfill requests for supplies, which are directly shipped to employees who are working remotely. Work on deferred maintenance projects and planning for future projects continues with staff represented on site, as necessary.

Facilities staff responsible for oversight of the residence halls coordinated with Residence Life and Housing staff for the move out and potential storage of resident student belongings. Once residence hall rooms have been surveyed, plans for deep cleaning and disinfecting all spaces will be executed.
Searches
Five faculty search processes are continuing through the use of remote tools. Campus interviews, including virtual teaching demonstrations, are successfully underway. Staff searches currently are on hold.

Enrollment Management
The university is maintaining enrollment management processes and has an immediate goal of establishing innovative strategies for new student enrollment and current student persistence in a dramatically different environment. Offices are expanding online and telephone resources for admissions and financial aid counseling, enrollment yield activities, and retention efforts.

Recruitment
Regularly available virtual thirty-minute information sessions via Zoom will begin immediately and continue through April for prospective students. Led by an admissions counselor, these small-group sessions will provide a Worcester State recruitment presentation that offers a virtual campus tour and interaction with prospective students.

Yield
Virtual information sessions via Zoom for small groups of accepted students will begin in April, which is traditionally the yield season. These sessions will aim to provide accepted students with opportunities to learn about campus before making their admission deposit. The typical May 1 admission deposit deadline has been moved to June 1 this year.

Congratulations Day, the highest yielding event for new students, had to be completely re-envisioned due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The on-campus April 4 event has been canceled. We are preparing to offer three virtual congratulations events for accepted students, on Saturday, April 4 at 9 a.m.; Tuesday, April 14 at 6 p.m.; and Thursday, April 23, at 4 p.m. These Zoom-enabled events will share characteristics with Congratulations Day, including remarks from university leaders, the accepted student video, academic success information, a virtual campus tour/photo slideshow, housing information, cost and financial aid information, and more. The ultimate goal – as it always is with Congratulations Day – is to convince students and their families that Worcester State is their best choice for the coming fall.
“Meet a WSU Faculty” events will take place via Zoom for accepted students. These will connect small groups of students with a faculty member to discuss academic life at Worcester State. A virtual “Meet and Greet” for prospective honors students via Zoom is tentatively planned for early April.

Prior to the crisis, WSU hosted its first ever Admitted Student Luncheon on February 21, which included 40 admitted students and their families. Additional new student yield events will be held in numerous online formats.

Financial Aid and Retention

The Financial Aid office is hosting regular online office hours for financial counseling purposes, in addition to normal financial aid assistance provided via phone and email. In conjunction with the Admission events, the Financial Aid Office also will host at least two Financial Aid Virtual Information Sessions.

The Retention Office staff are working remotely and mirroring persistence and retention support services normally offered to students on-campus. Outreach to at-risk students, mitigation of retention impediments, and data analysis to inform retention efforts are some of the services that continue for current students.

Student Affairs

Residence Life

Resident students were required to move out of the halls no later than March 30, and Residence Life staff have followed social distancing guidelines in moving out more than 1,500 of them. There are 22 students staying in the halls for the remainder of the semester. These students have extraordinary circumstances. Chartwells will provide food service to these students.

Counseling Center and Health Services

Mental health issues will continue and likely will heighten during this time. The Counseling Center is working with students remotely through confidential teletherapy. Current clients can arrange appointments directly through their counselors. Counseling services will respond to requests for new appointments within 24 hours.
Health Services will operate on a limited basis, Monday - Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. For any health-related questions, students have been instructed to call Health Services at 508-929-8875. Walk-in appointments cannot be accepted without first calling Health Services.

During this crisis, it is important that our students have a sense of normalcy in their lives. The goal of Student Affairs is to continue to provide high-quality engagement activities and support services for our students, but in new ways. Offices are creating online platforms to support daily updates, virtual club meetings, spiritual groups, and fitness activities.

Student Emergency Fund
The WSU Student Emergency Fund will continue to accept applications. Students may fill out the application at https://www.worcester.edu/Student-Emergency-Fund/. Applications are being reviewed on a daily basis.

University Advancement

Operations Continuity
During this crisis, the university continues its work to raise funds to support its students. Key to this effort is donor relations and stewardship. Keeping donors and friends informed of the university is an important way to make sure they continue to support our mission.

University Advancement has transitioned to a fully remote operation, with all members checking in daily with their supervisors and a weekly divisional meeting takes place via Zoom on Thursdays. All office lines have been forwarded offsite.

Development & Fundraising
The key priority of University Advancement during the first week of remote operation was to connect individually with key donors and check to see how they are managing. These contacts took a variety of forms, including 1,700 personalized video thank-yous to all donors who made a gift to the Chandler’s Challenge Days of Giving event. In total, 2,095 individual contacts were made by staff to donors, alumni, and friends through personalized thank you-videos, notes, phone calls, and emails.

A crowdsourcing initiative to support the Student Emergency Fund was launched with an initial campaign goal of $10,000. This initiative is part of University Advancement’s primary focus for the remainder of this academic year, which is the support of our students. You can visit the crowd funding campaign at https://www.givecampus.com/ni99ue
Donor Stewardship Efforts

- 30 campaign thank-you videos created for Chandler’s Challenge gift campaigns
- 1,713 thank you videos sent to Chandler’s Challenge donors
- Developed a Chandler’s Challenge storyboard video
- Plan developed for VP COVID-19 letter to be mailed to donors for the week of March 30
- Produced video in support of COVID-19 Student Emergency Fund

Chandler’s Challenge

On March 9 and March 10, the university saw its annual “Chandler’s Challenge” days of giving competition. During that effort, $46,707 was raised over the course of the event from 1,521 individual donors.

Of the 1,726 gifts through Give Campus, 1,100 already have been vetted against university records. For those vetted during the week of March 16, 637 new constituents were added; 226 constituents were updated; and 850 gifts were processed.
